Fresh Vine Wine Provides First Quarter Fiscal 2023 Business Update

New Leadership Refreshing Strategy and Direction

Laser-Focused on Accelerating Sales Growth

New Marketing Strategy will Leverage Extensive Platform, Award-Winning Wines, Growing National Brand Recognition and Celebrity Endorsements to Increase Sales Across Wholesale, Retail, Online and DTC Channels

MINNEAPOLIS, May 22, 2023 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Fresh Vine Wine, Inc. (NYSE American: VINE), the leading producer of premium lower carb, lower sugar, and lower calorie wines in the United States, today provided a business update and reported its financial results for the three months ending March 31, 2023.

The Company reported continued progress over the first three months of 2023, adding new wholesale and retail points of distribution while continuing to aggressively market through its online and direct-to-consumer channels (DTC). On April 25, 2023, Roger Cockroft, an accomplished executive with a long track record of strengthening organizations and unlocking intangible value, was appointed Chief Executive Officer by the Board of Directors. As part of his employment agreement, Mr. Cockroft will receive 50% of his compensation in the form of Fresh Vine Wine stock.

Mr. Cockroft commented, "Throughout my career I have always committed to building value in my companies. Consequently, upon receiving the opportunity to lead Fresh Vine Wine, it was only natural, therefore, for me to make a similar commitment to our shareholders. In just the short time since I have been here, my instincts have proven correct. Fresh Vine Wine has all of the elements of a successful brand: A fantastic, award-winning portfolio of wines in the market's fastest-growing category, an expansive national footprint with both national and regional big box retailers and grocers, a robust online and direct-to-consumer (DTC) channel, and affiliations with celebrities that have large social media followings amongst our target audience. The key is to now accelerate consumer adoption through a better coordinated sales and marketing effort. Driving sales will be my all-consuming focus for the foreseeable future.

Management Team Strengthened

"Clearly, there's work left to do. Despite this strong foundation, financial results in the first quarter show we are not executing as we should. I recognize the challenges, and believe execution is key. Consequently, I intend to put a new C-suite team in place with the relevant experience and the necessary commitment to achieve our sales growth objective. Most immediately, Jamey Whetstone, the winemaker behind our wines, is coming on full time to manage our sales team. Jamey knows our wine, knows the winemaking business, and, together with Rick Nechio who continues to expand our national presence, will be able to drive near term sales success. Michelle Whetstone, who is on our Board, will now also take on critical operations and logistics responsibilities. I'm also adding Chelsea Cooper as our Chief Marketing Officer. She brings years of innovative, data-driven marketing expertise to brands and companies looking to create measurable impact and growth. Look for us to make similar moves to further strengthen our finance and marketing teams. We have a world-class opportunity in front of us, and I think we're putting a world-class management in place to meet that opportunity.

Nina Dobrev & Julianne Hough – shareholders with over 30 million social media followers

“One of Fresh Vine Wine’s great treasures is its strong association with celebrities Nina Dobrev and Julianne Hough, both of whom are substantive Fresh Vine Wine shareholders. Their combined 30 million social media followers are primarily in our key demographic. In speaking with Nina and Julianne, who were instrumental in developing our wines, they have both re-committed to supporting the brand, both through their extensive online presence as well as in-person at signature events. This puts an exclamation point on our all out sales effort.”

“Let me conclude by noting that my initial impression was that this feels like something that could be very big. And, over the next two or three years, we could be building something that could be the envy of the industry while helping define a whole new product category. In many ways, we have already seen positive movement in our business. We have new retail outlets and new on-premise sites, and we are starting to see this reflected in our depletions. Clearly, we are making progress establishing a base for sales growth. This is all encouraging, but I’ve never been one to wait for things to happen. So, as a fellow shareholder, my time and energy is focused on expediting the achievement of the potential of something I think can be very special.”
